STATE OF COLORADO
*Ballot issues referred by the general assembly to any political subdivision are listed by precinct, and ballot issues referred by the people are listed numerically. A "yes" vote on any ballot issue is a vote in favor of changing current law or existing circumstances, and a "no" vote is a vote against changing current law or existing circumstances.
Amendment 27
Shall there be an amendment to the Colorado constitution concerning campaign finance, and, in connection therewith, reducing the amount of campaign contributions that persons may make to candidate committees, political committees, and political parties, establishing contribution limits for small donor committees, prohibiting candidate committees and political parties from making or accepting certain contributions, restricting the amount of contributions political parties and political committees may accept from certain sources, limiting contributions and expenditures that may be made by corporations or labor organizations, creating voluntary campaign spending limits, providing for a periodic adjustment of contribution and voluntary spending limits, specifying the treatment of unexpended contributions, requiring the disclosure of information about persons making electronically communications above a specified amount, defining electronic communications as certain near-election communications that unambiguously refer to a candidate and are targeted to voters, and incorporating into the constitution existing statutory provisions, with amendments, regarding elections, deposits of contributions, limits on cash contributions, notice and disclosure of independent expenditures, reporting of contributions and expenditures, civil penalties, and duties of the secretary of state?
YES ☒ 87
NO ☐ 88
Amendment 28
Shall there be an amendment to the Colorado Revised Statutes concerning the conduct of elections using mail-in ballots, and, in connection therewith, replacing existing statutory provisions relating to mail ballot elections with provisions governing "automatic absentee ballot elections" requiring that, after January 1, 2005, any election held on the same day as any primary, general, congressional, special legislative, partisan officer recall, or other November coordinated election, be conducted as an automatic absentee ballot election, permitting other elections and elections held before January 1, 2005 to be conducted as automatic absentee ballot elections, requiring an election official who conducts an automatic absentee ballot election to submit a plan for the election to be approved by the secretary of state, specifying requirements for the delivery and return of ballots in an automatic absentee ballot election, including provisions for ballot drop-off sites, polling booth locations, and the issuance and return of replacement ballots, specifying requirements for ballot qualification in an automatic absentee ballot election, including the verification of voter signatures and the counting of such ballots, specifying that interference with the delivery of ballots in an automatic absentee ballot election to the designated election official is an election offense, and increasing penalties for specified election offenses?
