STATE OF COLORADO Ballot issues referred by the general assembly or any political subdivision are listed by letter, and ballot issues initiated by the people are listed numerically. A year after any ballot issue is a vote in favor of changing current law or existing constitutional provisions, and a "no" vote on any ballot issue is a vote against changing current law or existing constitutional provisions. Amendment 27 Shall there be an amendment to the Colorado constitution concerning campaign finance, and, in connection therewith, reducing the amount of campaign contributions that persons may make to candidate committees, political committees, and political parties, establishing contribution limits for small donor committees, prohibiting candidate committees and political parties from making or accepting certain contributions, restricting the amount of contributions political parties and political committees may accept from certain sources, limiting contributions and expenditures that may be made by corporations or labor organizations, creating voluntary campaign spending limits, providing for a periodic adjustment of contribution and voluntary spending limits, specifying the treatment of unexpended contributions, requiring the disclosure of information about persons making electronically communications above a specified amount, defining "electronic communications" as certain near-election communications that unambiguously refer to a candidate and are targeted to voters, and incorporating into the constitution existing statutory provisions, with amendments, regarding elections, deposits of contributions, limits on cash contributions, notice and disclosure of independent expenditures, reporting of contributions and expenditures, civil penalties, and duties of the secretary of state? YES ☒ 87 NO ☒ 88 Amendment 28 Shall there be an amendment to the Colorado Revised Statutes concerning the conduct of elections using mail-in ballots, and, in connection therewith, revising existing statutory provisions relating to mail ballot elections with provisions governing "automatic absentee ballot elections" requiring that, after January 1, 2025, any election held on the same day as any primary, general, congressional vacancy, special legislative, partisan officer recall, or other nonpartisan election, be conducted as an automatic absentee ballot election, permitting other elections and elections held before January 1, 2025 to be conducted as automatic absentee ballot elections, requiring an election official who conducts an automatic absentee ballot election to submit a plan for the election to be approved by the secretary of state, specifying requirements for the delivery and return of ballots in an automatic absentee ballot election, including provisions for ballot drop-off sites, polling booth locations, and the issuance and return of replacement ballots, specifying requirements for ballot qualification in an automatic absentee ballot election, including the verification of voter signatures and the counting of each ballot, specifying that interference with the delivery of a ballot in an automatic absentee ballot election to the designated election official is an election offense, and increasing penalties for specified election offenses? YES ☒ 103 NO ☒ 104 Amendment 29 Shall there be an amendment to the Colorado Revised Statutes concerning the use of petitions to provide candidates access to the primary election ballot, and, in connection therewith, requiring that all candidates for nomination at a primary election be placed on the primary election ballot by petition, eliminating the candidate qualification and certification process from state, county, and district assemblies, specifying the signature requirements for nominating petitions for access to the primary election ballot, allowing a candidate to include a personal statement on the ballot nominating petition, providing for examination of nominating petitions by the designated election official, and setting forth a procedure to protest the election official's decision regarding the sufficiency of nominating petitions? YES ☒ 103 NO ☒ 110 Amendment 30 Shall there be an amendment to the Colorado constitution concerning election day voter registration, and, in connection therewith, allowing an eligible citizen to register and vote on any day that a vote may be cast in any election for term beginning January 1, 2024, specifying election day voter registration locations, specifying that an eligible citizen who registers to vote on election day will register in person and present a current and valid Colorado driver's license or state identification card or other approved documentation, and directing the Colorado general assembly to implement election day voter registration to adopt necessary provisions against election fraud?
